

LIMERICK LANE

ZINFANDEL

Collins Vineyard

Russian River Valley 2001

Finding plenty of compact blackberry and dried plum fruit in its cinnamon and quiet, cherry-influenced aromas, this fairly full-bodied bottling is very nicely balanced from front to back, and its pert, juicy flavors pick up engaging hints of caramel, dark chocolate and toffee along the way. Long in the finish by virtue of its piquant acidity and convincing fruit, it will serve with distinction even now in partnership with pork roasts and chops yet should age well for several years.
